

Europe and Holy Land Tour
1910 Photos
taken by John Lorang
(updated Nov. 14, 2005)

Only 3 years earlier, in 1907, a postcard from Pendleton, OR from John to his wife Mary, was written in German.
John learned English from Mary, we have a paper from his lessons,
and so his hundreds of photo descriptions
and extensive journals were written in English.

Thank you, Mary

Photos will be available for viewing at White Spring Ranch Museum
Beginning May 2006

Inserted are John's journal notes, with matching dates
Transcribed from copies of his journal
by Kathleen Lorang Conroy, daughter of Barney Lorang
I have included John's original spelling in these entries.
Majority of photos are 3 ½ x 5 ½

*As found in collection of Barney Lorang, son of John and Mary Lorang.

*As found in collection of Charles Lorang, son of John and Mary Lorang, with some descriptions typed by Charles.
Dale Lorang, son of Charles provided copies for reference.

*As found in collection of Charles Lorang, in old black postcard album.
There were two descriptions. One was pasted below the photo and an additional description, often more detailed, was written on the back.
Mary Ann Rohrbach, daughter of Charles Lorang preserved these photos and their descriptions

*As found in collection of Henry Lorang, son of John and Mary Lorang in old black postcard album.

*One unique photo taken of John and Mary in front of the Sphinx,
in different pose than other copies,
found in collection of Bertha Lorang Kennedy copy provided by Don Kennedy

(Note: From Mary's journal, and from postcards of "cousin Joe Meyer" 1907-1910, it's been possible to determine that the Meyer family of Diekirch, Luxembourg was family of ours. Photo of Joe Meyer, who lived in France and also worked on the Genesee farm for a time, shows a striking resemblance to John Lorang's father, Bernard Lorang. I believe this Meyer family of Diekirch is part of our missing branch of Lorangs in France and Luxembourg. From civil records found in Germany: Bernard Lorang's grandfather was Mathias Lorang of Krathum, Luxembourg. Bernard's mother was Maria Lorang who lived with him in Dreis, Germany)

This will all eventually be included in a book that contains Mary Lorang's journal also. Mary described more than John and filled two journals. And she would often continue writing around the edges of the pages.

These two journals, John's log of daily expenses and all of the 1910 Trip photos will make a very impressive book.
