

Moscow Idaho

Jan. 31 1918

My dearest Henry,

Your letter of the twenty first was received, and I was so disappointed to hear that you did not get any of my letters, nor any of the packages that were sent you.

I went to the office and they said you would get that package in time. I think they have had time don't you?

The cold must be awfully hard to put up with along with other things.

I do hope this old war will soon be over, and that you will come back.

I saw my first operation today. It was for appendasides on Martha Grieser. I don't like that part of it very well. It made my knees want to bend the wrong way so my stomach went up side down my face red and my head went around. There is nothing funny about it.

Hello dearest. This is the next night, and I am some tired.

Martha just keeps me on the hop all day long. You see she think's she is the only one in the house that is really sick. Although there were two new operated on the same day.

I got a letter from Alice today and she said that Johnie was thinking some of enlisting next week. He is realy anxious to go. Joe has tonsillitis and is not able to do anything.

Oh! Henry I do hope you won't get sick, unless, you could come home.

The girls have all gone to the show tonight so every thing is quite. They wanted me to go along but I wanted to finish your letter and besides, I am too tired. I think I will take a bath and go to bed, with my hot water bottle. That is what you should have to keep you nice and warm. I can just see you making fun of me now, for saying that they are good bed pals when you have nothing better.

Well sweetheart, I will promise that if you get this I will write you the longest one you ever got! From me

Your own

Marguerite

I do hope this old war will soon be over, and that you will come back.

I saw my first operation today. It was for appendix on Martha Grieser. I don't like that part of it very well. It made my knees want to bend the wrong way, my stomach went up side down, my face red and my head went around. There is nothing funny about it. Hello dearest. I'm in the next night, and I am some tired. Martha just kept me on the hot all day long. You see she think's she is the only one in the house that is really sick. Although there

Moscow Idaho
Jan. 31, 1918.

My dearest Henry,
Your letter of the twenty first was received, and I was so disappointed to hear that you did not get any of my letters, nor any of the packages that were sent you. I went to the office and they said you would get that package in time. I think they have had time don't you?
The cold must be awfully hard to put up with along with other things.

