

Spokane April 26th
1937

Dear Son Henry and Margurite and all.

Well you said you had to steal the time to write to me I am sorry that you are so busy but although I should no that you are very busy anyhow this time of the year when there is so much to do and all the children going to school I suppose they are all so grown up that I will not no any of them anymore I hope you can bring them and Margurite up sometime for I dont think I ever will be home any more for the Dr. don't want me to go downstairs only I can go down once a day and that is for dinner in the evening when the girls are home but I am feeling fairly well if nothing comes, but you see how fast you can go by Thoms death he wanted to stay hear a little while yet but God took him by a surprise in the night So do we have to be prepaired in the soul and busyness also but a person always neglect lotts of things until it is to late that is why I would like you to fix things so that their won't be trouble after I will be gone it will be easier for you. I am trying to live and hold on to myself untill everything is in good shape but God only nos when he calls me I will be ready to go if everything is well otherwise you no I have been very good to you and your familie all I am worry about is the year back taxes that I did not meet yet I have kept my Frederick's interest to date. Now my Son if you could sell those peas for me I would not no how to sell them maybe you could sell them for seed Charles would not no where to sell them and he is so very busy with Thoms esteade Robert is gone back to Seattle and Anna is alone I hate to bother you with does peace but I think I better sell them before planting time. Are we going to get some allotement money this year yet are is it outlawed I surely would need it for I have halve the taxes to pay in June but I have a little money left for I dont no whate might happen to me. the girls are working every day and Amali is working also in a Café Monica is going to school and she sings a lott evenings and makes a few dollars and I guess I wrote you that Rodney was married the first day in April he also is doing something I don't know what might happen to me. The girls are working every day and Amali is working also in a Café. Monica is going to school and she sings a lott evenings and makes a few dollars and I guess I wrote you that Rodney was married the first day in April he also is doing something I dont no whate and his wife is working at the Davenport hotel she is very nice.

Dear Margurite I sent you 2 dollars in my last letter dont no wether I told you what to do with it I am so forgetfull, that was for my Alter Society I thought you should give it to one of the ladies and tell them to send me a reipt for it so I can see how long I am paid up please tell them to let me no, and Henry some more trouble for you let me no what you can do with them peace excuse my paper Very much love to you all as ever

Mama

Mary Gesellchen Lorang, c.1937