Hello Everyone;

Well I just had to write to you today for several reasons. One of them is the fact that my accuracy is not very well today. The other is to tell you not to send up any box this Thursday as I am not batching any more. Yes, that is what I said; I am not batching any more. Several big things have happened in the past few days. First I finished my third unit in bookkeeping, second I finished machines, third I finished (or had to quit) penmanship, fourth I finished charm and personality, fifth I started four new courses and started also on my last section of bookkeeping, sixth I am now a bus-boy at the Davenport Hotel, seventh I have moved I have moved to a room much closer (closer) to my business (altho at the same price), much nicer, and also with maid service, bedding, towels etc., seventh the new courses I started demanded an outlay of over $15 for books. You see, an awful lot has happened since you have last heard of me. I started to work Sat. and had Uncle Charles help me move and also store some of my utensils Sun. I put in 9 ½ hours Sat. and 10 ½ hours Sun. The pay isn't so good but with the meals I get there I think that I can manage quite well, I hope.

How is everyone? Hope they are as well as I, for I am really o. k. Tell Aunt Alice hello for me as I probably won't get to write this week and maybe not next. My time is pretty well filled up now and I don't mean perhaps. Write when you get time. This class has ended and I have to move on. Goodbye now.

As Ever,
Bob
