

Acceptance letter to be
God-Mother for Charles A.
Lorang, from Caroline
Driscoll – Nov. 1, 1902

Saturday, November, the First 1902

Mrs. John Lorang,

Dear Friend,

This is to tell you how pleased and proud I am at being chosen godmother to your precious babe. You may be sure I shall not hold the responsibility lightly and I promise you, that so long as I live, my dear godchild shall never want for any benefits that are within my power to obtain for him.

I have wanted to see you and congratulate you upon many things – First and best your own happy recovery, next the felicity at home during your absence, and last but not least, the possession of so healthy and charming a young son.

The distinction conferred upon me today will be an incentive to greater virtue on my part, and if I can become as good and brave a woman as the mother of my boy I shall surely feel safe and satisfied.

Hoping the delivery of this note may see him safely relieved to mamma's arms.

I am yours, affectionately
Caroline Driscoll

Caroline
Mrs. John Lorang,
Present

Acceptance letter to be God-Mother for Charles
A. Lorang, from Caroline
Driscoll - Nov. 1, 1902

Saturday, November, the First
Mrs. John Lorang, 1902

Dear Friend,

This is to tell you how pleased and proud I am at being chosen God-mother to your precious babe. You may be sure I shall not hold this responsibility lightly, and I promise you, that so long as I live, my dear godchild shall never want for any benefits that are within my power to obtain for him.

I have wanted to see you and congratulate you upon many things. — First and best your own happy recovery, next the felicity at home during your absence, and last but not least, the possession of so healthy and charming a young son.

The distinction conferred upon me today will be an incentive to greater virtue on my part, and if I can become as good and brave a woman as the mother of my boy I shall surely feel safe and satisfied.

Hoping the delivery of this note may see him safely returned to mamma's arms
I am yours affectionately
Caroline Driscoll.