

1902, July 4 "Genesee News"
Picnic at Lorang Farm

The Catholic picnic held Wednesday at the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. John Lorang, despite the cold and disagreeable day, proved a financial and social success. With music by the Genesee band, E. J. Bru's phonograph and various games and sports, the large crowd found ample entertainment. The big dinner was a leading feature and many remarked that they had never before sat down to so complete a spread. The diamond ring contest was a victory for the Irish, Miss Lulu Brennan having several votes to spare. Votes amounting to about $105 were cast for the two young ladies. In the evening the young people indulged in a dance. It was the verdict of all they had passed a pleasant day and the great majority being Catholics felt that by their presence and money they had assisted materially in raising the (St. Mary's) church debt.

Lorang Farm,, c.1915

St. Mary's Church and St. Joseph's school, c.1910

The Catholic picnic held Wednesday at the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. John Lorang, despite the cold and disagreeable day, proved a financial and social success. With music by the Genesee band, E. J. Bru's phonograph and various games and sports, the large crowd found ample entertainment. The big dinner was a leading feature and many remarked that they had never before sat down to so complete a spread. The diamond ring contest was a victory for the Irish, Miss Lulu Brennan having several votes to spare. Votes amounting to about $105 were cast for the two young ladies. In the evening the young people indulged in a dance. It was the verdict of all they had passed a pleasant day and the great majority being Catholics felt that by their presence and money they had assisted materially in raising the church debt.